Royal Crown

Luxury Cruises on the Rhine, Danube and Mosel

Legendary Inspiration

Enter the golden age of travel

Step onboard the Royal Crown and enter the elegant romantic world of Europe in the 1930s. A time of economic depression during which musicians and actors provided a fantasy world of glamour and carefree amusement. The rich and famous travelled through Europe in style, enjoying elaborate meals, decadent company and fine wines. Legendary ships and trains reigned supreme and marked a golden age of travel. The Royal Crown is a celebration of the style of that age. Welcome onboard!

Experience The Royal Crown

Exotic Art Deco

Everything onboard the iconic Royal Crown suffuses style and decadent glory: Art Nouveau lamps shine a subdued light on polished bronze, glass mosaics and mahogany wood. Attractive veneers express the exquisite, exotic Art Deco. Soft upholstered armchairs invite you to nostalgic meals on opulently set tables. All the while the stirring sounds of Gershwin, Duke Ellington or Marlene Dietrich add romance, adventure and allure to this unparalleled ambiance. On your journey to fantastic destinations such as Cologne, Prague, Vienna and Budapest your stay on the Royal Crown will be a travel experience in itself.

Personal Touch

Royal treatment

The discrete punctual service provided by our crew members is perhaps the Royal Crown's greatest secret. You experience this from the very moment you walk onboard: the warm welcome and personal escort to your luxury cabin. Each one of the 52 crew members is focused on making this a pleasurable experience for you and your exclusive travel companions (a maximum of 80 passengers). The obliging concierge is your contact for your private tours to Europe's most attractive cities. From housekeepers to the captain, from chef to front desk agent, they all do their work with a smile. And they all know when to surprise you with those timely small gestures. You will quickly feel at home on the Royal Crown!

Four River Journey Cruise

Oct 10 - 17, 2011

Four of Europe's most legendary rivers await on you this mesmerizing journey. Experience the romantic spirit and the rich heritage left by history and nature along the Danube, the Main-Danube Canal, the Main and the Rhine. Your journey through the heart of Europe starts on the Danube, without doubts the most delightful among the European rivers and continues on the Main-Danube Canal.

Day One: Boarding in Passau
The ship sets sail in the late afternoon.

Day Two: Regensburg
Optional guided city walk through the old town of Regensburg is the best way to experience the beauty of the medieval city in the morning. In the afternoon, enjoy a leisurely cruise along the tranquil landscape of the upper Danube.

Day Three: Nuremberg
The next highlight of your cruise is the Franconian capital of Nuremberg. Nuremberg's many sights make sure that visitors will be delighted. During today's optional excursion you may also take a look at some of Nuremberg's many historical buildings. Evening cruise continues its journey on the Main-Danube Canal and Main towards Schweinfurt.

Day Four: Schweinfurt
Morning sail to Schweinfurt. Optional afternoon walking tour offers pure romanticism, and afterwards visit a winery, for a tasting.

Day Five: Würzburg
This morning, an optional guided city walk. Europe's greatest baroque-age architect, Balthasar Neumann, built the Residence Palace. The former home of Würzburg's prince bishops is nicknamed the "castle above all castles" since it is said to have the most beautiful staircase of any building in the world. Evening cruise along the Main River.

Day Six: Frankfurt
Arrival in Frankfurt about noon. and join the optional city tour. The ship sets sails towards the Rhine river.

Day Seven: Cruising the Upper Middle Rhine Valley. With its mighty castles and striking ruins, steep vineyards and idyllic villages, it is the highlight of this cruise. Arrival in Cologne in the afternoon. Optional tour of the Old Town passing St. Martin's Church, and spending time inside Cologne's Dom, a Gothic cathedral.

Day Eight: Cologne
After breakfast, disembark.

Grand Rhine Journey Cruise

Oct 17 - 24, 2011

No other river abounds in so many legends as the Rhine. As you follow it's endlessly curving banks, idyllic vineyards give way to rugged cliffs, broad green plains, narrow valleys and darkly forested hills. Traditional half-timbered houses are nestled into the slopes of the riverbank as well as imposing castles and fortresses.

Day One: Boarding in Cologne.
Optional afternoon city tour including the famous Dom and the Chocolate Museum. Departing Cologne in the late evening.

Day Two: Morning sailing to Koblenz
Optional tour of the city on foot. Founded by the Romans, Koblenz is set at the famous Deutsches Eck (German Corner), where the Rhine and Mosel rivers meet. Ehrenbreitstein fortress and Stolzenfels Castle are part of the Upper Middle Rhine Valley. Afternoon arrival in Boppard where you can enjoy free time or go on an optional walking tour.

Day Three: Mainz in the afternoon.
Enjoy the lovely old town – the inner city - with it's charming old houses and broad roomy squares during an optional city walk and visit of the famous Gutenberg Museum.

Day Four: Morning stop at Mannheim
Optional tour to Heidelberg. With its red walled Heidelberg Castle, Germany's oldest university, and the River Neckar running through it, it is one of Germany's most charming cities.

Afternoon cruise to Speyer. Founded by the Romans, it is one of Germany's oldest cities. Optional walking tour through Speyer reveals a medieval town dominated by the largest Romanesque cathedral in Europe.

Day Five: Strasbourg
After breakfast, optional tour of Strasbourg by coach and on foot. The city centre is a buzzing network of small squares, narrow streets and palaces. Marvel at the cathedral and canals.

Day Six: Cruising Upper Middle Rhine Valley.
With its mighty castles and striking ruins, steep vineyards and idyllic villages, it is the highlight of this cruise. Optional tour to Siegfried's Mechanical Music Museum in Rudesheim, time to explore the town and its famous Drosselgasse.

Day Seven: Morning cruise to Cologne
Optional tour of the Old Town passing St. Martin's Church, and spending time inside Cologne's Dom, a Gothic cathedral.

Day Eight: Cologne
After breakfast, disembark.

Rhine and Main Journey

Oct 24 - 31, 2011

No other river abounds in so many legends as the Rhine. As you follow it's endlessly curving banks, idyllic vineyards give way to rugged cliffs, broad green plains, narrow valleys and darkly forested hills. Traditional half-timbered houses are nestled into the slopes of the riverbank, as well as imposing castles and fortresses. Enjoy the facets of villages and distinctive cities on the Rhine and the woods & vineyards along the Moselle.

Day One: Boarding in Cologne.
Optional afternoon city tour including the famous Dom and the Chocolate Museum. Departing Cologne in the late evening.

Day Two: Koblenz
Optional tour of the city on foot. Founded by the Romans, Koblenz is set at the famous Deutsches Eck (German Corner), where the Rhine and Mosel rivers meet. Ehrenbreitstein fortress and Stolzenfels Castle are part of the Upper Middle Rhine Valley. Afternoon arrival in Boppard where you can enjoy free time or an optional walking tour.

Day Three: Cruising Upper Middle Rhine Valley.
With its mighty castles and striking ruins, steep vineyards and idyllic villages, it is the highlight of this cruise. Optional tour to Siegfried's Mechanical Music Museum in Rudesheim, time to explore the town and its famous Drosselgasse.

Day Four: Morning cruise to Cochem
Optional sightseeing tour of Cochem, a beautiful resort on the Mosel River. Back on board, you continue your journey on the Moselle.

Day Five: Trarbach
The woods and vineyards snuggle up to the double city on the left and right banks of the Mosel as if they were a mighty amphitheater bordered by grape vines. An abundance of buildings with architectural treasures of the Jugendstil and "Belle Epoque" styles will make your stay in this city a very romantic experience.

Day Six: Bernkastel
Morning free time in this German Mosel town with the picturesque old town and medieval architecture. In the afternoon you can take part in an excursion to Idar-Oberstein or Trier with it's famous roman baths and wine cellars. Re-board the ship in Zell in the evening.

Day Seven: Morning cruise to Cologne
Optional tour of the Old Town passing St. Martin's Church, and spending time inside Cologne's Dom, a Gothic cathedral.

Day Eight: Cologne
After breakfast, disembark.

The Historic Christmas Markets

Nov 28; Dec 5, Dec 12, 2011

The snow-capped hills of the world-famous Upper Middle Rhine Valley and the legendary Lorelei are the perfect backdrops for a romantic and leisurely cruise exploring Germany's historic Christmas markets. The pre-Christmas season really is a magic time in this country with so many wonderful things to see and do. Stroll through festively decorated streets and listen to the sounds of bells and trumpeters. Adorned with decorations and festively lit, the pedestrian areas and shopping centres offer everything your heart could desire. And – last but not least - explore the enchanting and unique Christmas markets where you may chose to swing to traditional concerts, watch artisans at work or try a cup of hot and spiced mulled wine to keep the cold away.

Day One: Embarkation in Mainz and Rudesheim.

Departing Mainz in the late afternoon you will enjoy a scenic cruise towards Rudesheim, your first port of call. Here, the Christmas market brings a distinctly festive feel to the romantic old quarter and its popular Drosselgasse, as 120 stalls representing Christmas customs and traditions from all around the world. After your individual visit to the market the Royal Crown will set sails towards Cologne while dinner is served on board.

Day Two: Cologne.

Today the Royal Crown enters the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Upper Middle Rhine Valley. With its mighty castles and striking ruins, steep vineyards and idyllic villages, it is the highlight of this cruise. Sailing into Cologne with its skyline dominated by the cathedral is an awe inspiring experience. Time to join the optional city tour or to explore the Christmas markets on your own. There are six different Christmas Markets in this city including one on a steam boat and a Medieval one right in front of the Chocolate Museum.

Day Three: Koblenz.

Optional tour of the city on foot. Fortress walls and castle towers, palaces and patrician houses are vivid illustrations of a turbulent past. Founded by the Romans, Koblenz is set at the famous Deutsches Eck (German Corner), where the Rhine and Mosel rivers meet. Ehrenbreitstein fortress and Stolzenfels Castle are part of the Upper Middle Rhine Valley UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city's traditional Christmas market is held in the Old Town, just minutes away from the main shopping area. Wooden stalls offer an extensive range of hand-made goods and Christmas decorations as well as a huge range of seasonal gift ideas.

Day Four: Disembarkation in Mainz.

After a final breakfast, you disembark for your onward journey.

The Traditional Christmas Markets

Dec 8, Dec 15, 2011

Exploring the French and German Christmas markets by river is a fabulous way to celebrate the magical, essence of Christmas. There are so many amazing things to see that it is hard to know where to start: Christmas trees, gold-foil angels, nut crackers, ginger bread, roasted almonds and the legends of Saint Nicholas. Each day you sail along the Rhine and visit the traditional markets while also exploring the historic cities, picturesque towns and beautiful, wintry countryside that flank the Rhine River.

Day One: Embarkation in Mainz.

Departing Mainz in the late afternoon you will enjoy a scenic evening cruise towards Worms while dinner is served on board.

Day Two: Worms and Speyer.

Morning arrival in Worms. During an optional guided walk, discover a magnificent Cathedral and follow the traces of Judaism and Martin Luther. Of course, you will also visit the charming Christmas market with its "living Nativity scene". Afternoon arrival into Speyer, one of Germany's oldest cities. Optional walking tour through Speyer reveals a medieval town dominated by the largest Romanesque cathedral in Europe. Festively decorated booths await you at Speyer's Christmas market, held in front of the Old Mint. Choirs and bands provide a musical programme while the booths offer traditional arts and crafts as well as local culinary specialties.

Day Three: Strasbourg.

Arrive just after breakfast, and disembark for an optional tour by coach and on foot. The city centre is a buzzing network of small squares, narrow streets and palaces. There is also abundant time to visit the Christmas market. In its 431st year, this market is the oldest one in France. It is also one of the largest in the country, and the setting in front of the Cathedral is just breathtaking.

Day Four: Mannheim.

Morning arrival at Mannheim, the starting point for today's optional excursion to Heidelberg. With its red walled imposing Heidelberg Castle, Germany's oldest university, the old quarter, the market place and the River Neckar running through it, it is one of Germany's most charming cities. Heidelberg's Christmas market extends over five squares. A wide array of crafts and tasty regional delicacies add to the Christmas spirit in this historic town. Alternatively you may choose to visit the Mannheim Christmas market on your own. Surrounded by an expansive Art Nouveau garden, it is a wonderful place to walk around.

Day Five: Disembarkation in Mainz.

After a final breakfast, you disembark for your onward journey.

Please read carefully the General Information and Conditions that follow. They limit our liability and that of the associate companies providing services purchased. In addition, they outline the terms and conditions under which Europeanbarging will operate with the Ro6yal Crown vessel. Payment of deposit by the passenger represents acceptance by the purchaser of the terms and conditions as follows:

FARES AND RATES - Determined as of June 2011 and subject to change without notice. Subject to currency fluctuation, change in air fare, and/or other rate changes by supplier. Rates are guaranteed upon receipt of full payment, except in seasonality rate change.

RESERVATIONS/CONFIRMATIONS - Subject to availability. After a reservation has been made, Europeanbarging will provide confirmation within 24 - 72 hours. Deposit of 25% per person is due within 7 days of confirmation on river cruises. Deposit for airlines varies by airlines. Final payment due 90 days before departure. For bookings made with 90 days of departure, full payment is due with booking.

CANCELLATIONS - Cancellation requests must be received in our office in writing. ALL MONIES PAID ARE NON REFUNDABLE

AIRLINES - Amount varies, if allowed by airline once ticketed. Many airline tickets are fully non-refundable once the tickets have been issued.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS - A valid passport is required for each passenger, with an expiration date of at least 6 months after scheduled departure date for Europe.

TRIP CANCELLATION INSURANCE - is strongly recommended for your protection. Ask at time of reservations for details.

RESPONSIBILITY - Europeanbarging and/or its agent representatives, and suppliers of service assume no responsibility for injury, death, damage, loss or delay incurred by any person in connection with the cruise/tour, by reason of any event beyond the control of Europeanbarging or loss occasioned by neglect default, strikes, wars, hostilities, civil disturbances or resulting directly or indirectly from acts of God. Europeanbarging reserves the right to withdraw any and all cruise/tour at any time should conditions warrant, to refuse to accept or retain any person(s) as tour participants(s), to alter or cancel the itinerary whenever Europeanbarging deems it necessary for the comfort, convenience or safety of the passengers of the tour(s). All cruise/tour itineraries and prices may be affected by alterations in river/canal, air or railroad services of the various countries, or by other causes. The right is reserved to cancel the cruise/tour prior to departure. In such case, full refund of all payments will constitute full settlement with the passenger. The airlines concerned are not held responsible for any act, omission or event during the time the passengers are not on board their airplanes or conveyance. The passenger contracts, in use by the airlines concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airline and the purchaser or these cruise/tour and/or passenger. Any and/or all transportation companies herein mentioned shall have or incur no responsibility or liability to any traveler aside from their liability as common carriers.
